

n2N SOFTWARE TO BE AUCTIONED APRIL 11, 2008

WELLESLEY HILLS, Mass., Feb. 19, 2008 Joseph F. Finn, Jr., C.P.A., the Assignee for the Benefit of Creditors of n2N Commerce, Incorporated, announced today that the software of n2N would be auctioned in a sealed bid auction on April 11, 2008 at 12:00 p.m. at the law firm of McCarter & English, Boston, MA. n2N was a company formed to develop the retail industry's first cross-channel, on-demand eCommerce software solution specifically designed for larger multi-channel retailers. The intellectual property consists of ten (10) software packages which are:

- n2N eCommerce Storefront
- n2N Integration Platform
- n2N Personalization Services
- n2N Rich Internet Application (RIA) Components
- n2N Software-as-a-Service (SaaS) Platform Architecture
- n2N Search Platform
- n2N Web 2.0 Contact Center
- n2N Web 2.0 Cross-channel Retail Workbench (XCRW)
- n2N Cross-channel Retail Workbench (XRCW) – Release 1
- n2N Order Management System Technical Package

n2N assigned its assets to Joseph F. Finn Jr., C.P.A. on January 4, 2008 to be liquidated for the benefit of its creditors.

About n2N

n2N is currently in the process of selling its proprietary assets through an Assignment for the Benefit of Creditors. The bidding for the assets, which may be purchased separately or in combination, will be conducted on April 11, 2008. Any person interested in purchasing the assets or learning more about the bidding process should contact Mr. Joseph F. Finn, Jr., C.P.A.

Bidding packages, which contain technical information and the terms of the sale, have been assembled and are ready to be distributed subject to a potential purchaser entering into a standard form non-disclosure agreement.

Request for Further Information

Interested parties can obtain a bidder's package by contacting Joseph F. Finn, Jr., C.P.A. (jffinnjr@earthlink.net, phone 781-237-8840), Finn, Warnke & Gayton, 167 Worcester Street, Suite 201, Wellesley Hills, MA 02481-3613.